

MAXIS GLOBAL PREFERRED DATA SOLUTION

GIVING YOU AN IN-DEPTH
VIEW OF YOUR GLOBAL DATA

As a multinational employer, you know that global risk management challenges have become more complex. We know accurate information is key to helping you build successful global employee benefits (EB) programmes.

MAXIS Global Preferred Data Solution (GPDS) gives you a better view of your organisation's EB use and the costs of your local insurance policies, helping you practice stronger governance, better risk management and giving you a better global oversight.

Once your programme is set up with us, you'll receive a comprehensive financial data analysis of your local policies, an annual stand-alone service, at no extra cost.

Is this the right solution for you?¹

To be able to implement a MAXIS GPDS, you will need to have:

- employees in several countries and/or you're expanding internationally
- at least two policies with two of our local insurers (members), with a minimum of at least 100 lives in each
- a minimum of US$10,000 premium in each country
- at least US$300,000 premium across all policies.

¹ Please note, this should include policies that are new to MAXIS GBN. Further conditions may be placed to access this solution.

What we offer

Together, we can set up your new MAXIS Global Preferred Data Solution (GPDS). Working with us offers you a number of benefits.
